

Ignite Leadership Coaching

effective tools for business

Dynamic business skills to kick-start effective leadership

Coaching is a key leadership skill. Research shows that leaders are more productive when they adopt a coaching style; in one-to-one conversations, performance and team building situations. These leaders are more influential and encourage innovation and accountability.

This two-day workshop grows leadership at all levels: it is for supervisors, managers and leaders, HR professionals, coaches, trainers and anyone wishing to support and develop others.

Course Benefits

- Personal and leadership effectiveness
- Enhanced business performance
- People supported through change
- Teams aligned with business strategy
- Challenging targets achieved

Training is face to face and via four teleclasses. Participants apply the learning in the workplace, and grow their skills in a co-coaching circle, providing best return on investment.

The Forton Group is a specialist international leadership consultancy. We ignite leadership excellence by –

- developing people to be their best
- building strong teams
- improving employee engagement
- inspiring cultural change

Our leadership coaching services are used by major organisations to improve business results. We create internal coaching cultures for clients to be world-class.

Course Overview

- Leadership coaching: what it is what it isn't
- Applying the leadership coaching model: steps and skills
- Resourceful leaders: identify and access resources for success

Accreditation

Accredited by the International Coach Federation, participants can work towards an internationally-recognised qualification in leadership coaching. Experienced coaches can use it for continuing professional development.

Your local contact:

Nikhil K. Maini

Phone:

+91-9820222774

E-Mail:

nikhil@seven.net.in

Dates and Prices

Date: 20-21 September 2011

Venue: The Club, Mumbai

Fees: ₹32,500 Plus Applicable Taxes

igniting excellence in leadership

